Student Name Here

to certify that she has achieved the title of

Future Engineer

Granted: December 10, 2009

You are forever entitled to:

Make the world a better place, take things apart, enjoy your career, learn new stuff, get excited about everything, make up new theories, know the universe in its deepest mystery, find out how things work, go on adventures, wander around, ask a lot of questions, bring more happiness, courage, balance, spontaneity, and life energy to yourself and the other humans and beings on this planet.

May you always have enough happiness to keep you sweet;
enough trials to keep you strong;
enough success to keep you eager;
enough faith to give you courage;
and enough determination to make each day a good day.
